

TORNADO BLUETOOTH USB

With the Tornado Bluetooth USB pen, it is possible to create a Piconetwerk (point-to-point) in order to link several wireless products. The Tornado Bluetooth USB pen act as a "Master" over 7 other appliances. One of these 7 "slaves" can consequently also act as a "Master" over 7 other "slaves". In this way, files can be sent to several Bluetooth pc's. The Tornado Bluetooth USB pen is simple and, with the PIN authentication, also safely in use. The ease of use of this product is also emphasized with the enclosed Bluetooth installation software and the desktop PC cradle that makes it very easy to install. The Tornado Bluetooth USB pen support a full range of Bluetooth profiles and uses the class 1 Bluetooth modules.
